Residence Hall Opening Info

- Residence halls open Friday, August 22, 2014 at 8 a.m.
- For a $36 cost, you may move in on Thursday, August 21, 2014. You can do so without completing a form or informing staff of your intentions.
- If you have a signed 2-Year Advantage Contract, you may move in on Thursday, August 21, for no additional charge.
- If you are approved to move in early and have a 2-Year Advantage Contract, you may move in and utilize the no-charge day as described above. If you are arriving early for a university-sponsored purpose (i.e. marching band), you may use this option as early as Saturday, August 16. However, you must submit a request on the links provided below and indicate that you would like to utilize the 2-year advantage day. You will receive e-mail notification about your early move in request.

Please note: students will not be able to move into Hagemann Hall or Noehren Hall prior to August 16.

Rates

The rate for all individuals arriving early is $36 per person per night. This includes individuals and those students returning due to a group approved reason. This rate covers the cost of room and meals (breakfast, lunch, and dinner) for all days up until meal plans start on Friday, August 22, 2014.

Group Arrangements

If you are making arrangements for students to arrive earlier than the above stated dates, please follow this link to complete your request. You will need to provide the names and UID numbers of the students arriving early.

Individual Requests

If you wish to move in earlier than the above mentioned dates and are not part of an approved group, please follow this link to complete your request.
