• Reading Committee are researching student learning outcomes, academic vocabulary, reading strategies, activities, evaluations, assessments, textbooks, and other materials to update this part of the curriculum.

• Program Assistant Caitlin Dau will be teaching intensive business English to students from Shanghai DianJi University in China during their special UNIBusiness Global Partners program here July 14-August 8.

• During the first full week of August, Program Assistants Ashley Jennings and Lynn Kovacs-Reid will be conducting a special prep program of academic English for the new group of Brazil Scientific Mobility Program students who began CIEP classes July 7.

• CEA accreditation committee members Petra Maier, Tom Riedmiller, Christina Tsimpides, Carolina Coronado-Park, Mike Williams and Phil Plourde have begun reviewing accreditation materials for the CIEP’s next site visit.

• Lauren Rein is working on reconstructing CIEP Assessment. Lauren spent the summer researching and learning more about the assessment theory.

• Tom Riedmiller is working to create an online course that can be used in the CIEP. He did research on what types of courses the CIEP could offer and how to administer those courses.