CIEP Tuition Scholarship - Spring 2014
The Culture and Intensive English Program will offer a tuition scholarship to prospective or currently enrolled CIEP students in Spring 2014. In normal circumstances, the scholarship will cover the cost of CIEP Tuition for two consecutive sessions. Other expenses such as housing, meals, books, health insurance and university fees are not covered in this scholarship. The total amount of the award is $4,900 which covers tuition for two sessions ($2,450 per session).

The CIEP Tuition Scholarship was created in 2012 in order to provide tuition assistance to students demonstrating academic merit and financial need. Applications are now being accepted. Submissions are due October 15, 2013. For more information, visit our scholarship page at: www.uni.edu/ciep/scholarships.

New CIEP Website
This Fall, the CIEP will be launching a new website. This site will still be accessible at: www.uni.edu/ciep. The new site contains interactive features, online application capabilities, and more comprehensive information for applicants, current students, staff, partners, agents, and representatives. The new website contains the following features:

- Interactive Map with CIEP Alumni Profiles
- Online Application System
- Interactive Brochures
- Translated information
- Activities & Academic Calendar
- Promotional Materials
- Interactive Handbooks

Online Application System
By the end of September, the CIEP will be accepting online applications. We will also be accepting all special program and scholarship applications through this system. The online system is powered through Terra Dotta and will enable students to submit passport copies, supporting documents, arrival information, and credit card payments in one location. Translated guides for completing the application will also be available. Students will apply online at: http://www.uni.edu/ciep/apply.

Agent, Partner, and Representative Handbook
The CIEP handbook for agents, partners and representatives has been updated for the 2013-2014 academic year. To view the new edition, please visit: http://www.uni.edu/ciep/partners/handbook.

Video Conference Invitation
Are you interested in learning more about the CIEP? We would like to invite you to meet with CIEP staff for a brief video conference. Staff members will describe the admission process and answer any questions you have about our program so that you may better help your students. To schedule a time to meet with us, simply visit: http://www.uni.edu/ciep/agencies-partners/conference-request.
